

EAST TENNESSEE INTERGROUP UNITY NEWSLETTER

JANUARY 2018
Volume 40, Issue 1

TRADITION ONE CHECKLIST

Our common welfare should come first; personal recovery depends upon AA unity.

1. In my AA program, am I a healing, mending, integrating person, or am I divisive? What about gossip and taking other members' inventories?
2. Am I a peacemaker? Or do I, with pious preludes such as "just for the sake of discussion," plunge into argument?
3. Am I gentle with those who rub me the wrong way, or am I abrasive?
4. Do I make competitive AA remarks, such as comparing one group with another or contrasting AA in one place with AA in another?
5. Am I critical of AA activities as if I were superior for not participating in this or that aspect of AA?
6. Am I informed about AA as a whole? Overall, am I supportive of AA in every way possible, or only in the parts I understand and approve?
7. Am I as considerate of AA members as I want them to be of me?
8. Do I spout platitudes about love while indulging in and secretly justifying behavior that bristles with hostility?
9. Do I go to enough AA meetings or read enough AA literature to genuinely keep in touch?
10. Do I share all of me with AA--the bad and the good--accepting as well as giving the gift of fellowship?

We admitted we were powerless over alcohol—that our lives had become unmanageable.

First Tradition:

Our common welfare should come first; personal recovery depends upon AA unity.

First Concept:

Final responsibility and ultimate authority for AA World Services should always reside in the collective conscience of our whole Fellowship.

First Step Prayer:

Dear God, I admit I am powerless over my alcoholism. I admit my life is unmanageable when I try to control it. Help me this day to understand the true meaning of powerlessness. Remove from me all denial of my alcoholism.

How can groups participate?

To help support A.A.'s essential services, the General Service Conference suggests that individual groups, through an informed group conscience, adopt a specific contribution plan tailored to meet the group's financial situation. Once the basic group expenses have been taken care of, for example: (rent, refreshments, A.A. literature, Grapevine literature, local meeting lists, G.S.R. travel expenses to attend service functions), and a "prudent reserve" has been set aside to cover any emergency contingencies that might arise, the group may decide to further carry the message by sending money to the following A.A. service entities.

- The local district, which communicates directly with the groups, providing the district group conscience for the area assemblies, and serving as a link between the area delegates and the G.S.R.s.
- The area committee, which coordinates vital A.A. activities over a broad geographic area; sends a delegate to the annual General Service Conference; holds area assemblies to determine the needs of the Fellowship; and provides information at all levels of service.
- The local intergroup or central office, which may provide phone service for Twelfth Step calls and other inquiries; coordination of group activities; A.A. literature sales; institutions work; public information and cooperation with the professional community activities.
- A.A.'s General Service Office, which functions as a storehouse of A.A. information, communicating with members and groups around the world; publishes A.A.'s literature; and supplies information and experience to professionals and others interested in A.A.
